

65 Easy Items to Declutter Now

Want an uncluttered space, but have trouble letting go? Start with these 65 easy items that will strengthen your ability to "let go", let you experience the satisfaction of letting go, and motivate you to take on larger, more challenging projects and decisions. If you aren't sure what to do with everything you are letting go of, click here for a London Donation, Resale and Disposal Guide.

Kids/Crafts

1. Puzzles with missing pieces
2. Games with missing pieces
3. Broken toys
4. Outgrown toys
5. Scraps of fabric too small to use
6. Dried up glue
7. Dried out paint, markers, play-doh

Bathroom/Linen

8. Expired make-up
9. Old nail polish
10. Overstretched hair elastics/headbands
11. Toiletry samples
12. Expired medication
13. Worn towels, sheets and blankets

Clothing/Accessories

14. Socks with no mate
15. Socks with holes
16. Earrings with no mate
17. Clothes that don't fit
18. Clothes you don't wear
19. Stained/torn clothes
20. Worn out shoes
21. Wire hangars
22. Broken jewelry
23. Nylons with runs
24. Underwear that has holes or lost elasticity

Electronics

25. Old phones/chargers
26. Mystery chargers
27. Old computers
28. Outdated electronics
29. Old DVDs, VHS and cassette tapes
30. Packaging/boxes from electronics

Kitchen

31. Excess mugs
32. Never used cook books
33. Expired food and spices
34. Tupperware without lids
35. Chipped dishes
36. Broken small appliances
37. Unused small appliances
38. Duplicate utensils

Basement/Garage

39. Dried up paint
40. Anything rusty/mildewed
41. Old cardboard boxes saved "just in case"
42. Broken/never used exercise equipment
43. Outdated baby stuff
44. Highschool/college textbooks and notebooks
45. Cracked picture frames

Paper/Drawers

46. Manuals to items no longer own or can be found online
47. Expired coupons, warranties, invites etc.
48. Junk mail
49. Old magazines (2 months or older)
50. Old newspapers (2 days or older)
51. Business cards you no longer need
52. Take-out menus
53. Unimportant receipts
54. Pens that don't work
55. Stubby pencils
56. Dead batteries

Mudroom/Entryway

57. Unidentifiable keys
58. Glove/mitt with no mate
59. Expired sunscreen
60. Broken umbrellas

Miscellaneous

61. Old eye glasses
62. Blurry, out of focus or duplicate photos
63. Pillows that are too flat
64. Florist vases
65. Overflow of plastic shopping bags